For those who like old school international intrigue, this novel has it all, including spies with convoluted allegiances, Oh.yes, baby sex scenes, cutting-edge hardware, and silky-smooth evildoers who take their time before killing a captured hero. An undemanding diversion for thrill-seekers, featuring an impressive protagonist. --- Kirkus Reviews A brilliant Air Force weapons scientist dies while skydiving. A handwritten suicide note is the only item found in his empty parachute pack. Searching for answers, his eldest son is brutally murdered, and another Department of Defense researcher dies in a horrific explosion. Battle-tested Marine Lieutenant Jack Gallaher demands to know what caused the tragic deaths of both his father and brother. His relentless pursuit leads him to a shocking conclusion: a submarine-based laser cannon and an orbiting satellite reflection mirror have been hijacked from the American military by a most trustworthy source, and ownership has been transferred to the Russian Federation Navy. Held captive on one of Russia s most advanced nuclear-powered guided missile submarines, Gallaher must fight against time to destroy the laser weapon before it can be unleashed against the U.S. and Allied forces. It will become Gallaher s most daunting challenge.
