Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The League of Nations: A Practical Suggestion Although I have had to give the subject of the League of Nations a good deal of consideration, this short sketch of it has been hastily written at the last moment, and amid other pressing duties, in view of the early meeting of the Peace Conference. My object in writing it has been threefold. In the first place, I wish to help in the formation of public opinion on what will undoubtedly be the most important and far-reaching of all the matters which the Conference will have to consider. In the second place, the discussion of the League of Nations has proceeded far too much on general or academic lines; and this, combined with the inherent difficulties of the subject, has helped to create the impression which is unhappily prevalent, that the League is not really a matter of practical politics. To combat this impression I have drawn in rough outline what appears to me a practical, workable scheme. In the third place, my reflections have convinced me that the ordinary conception of the League of Nations is not a fruitful one nor is it the right one, and that a radical transformation of it is necessary.
