Alex had her whole life planned out and moving to the United States wasn't in it. So leaving her family's American Dream behind she moves back to the Philippines. But life has a few more twists and turns in store for her. Will she find the courage to chase her dreams and risk everything. . . or will she play it safe to not get hurt? Chances are the path to adulthood isn't as clear as she thinks it is. . . What if? The eternal question, lived out in this unique cultural love story. Chances Are is a beautiful love story set in the Philippines and Indochina, and is rich in snippets that allow the reader to sample the pace of life and values held dear in this part of the world. The characters are very relatable because we are all familiar with teenage angst and indecisiveness. Isn't that what life really is? A blend of options and decisions from which our future is molded? Chances are, we all have had some flashbacks of some personal what if moments....
