The Sex Side of Life is a beautifully crafted essay that delves into the physical, as well as emotional aspects of sex education for young people; it is the ideal guide when it comes to understanding the complexity of human relations and sex. Young people can t help wanting to understand all about sex, but somehow they find themselves a little embarrassed in asking all the questions that come into their mind, and often they don t feel quite like talking about it freely, especially to their father and mother. Older people really want to help them with their experience and advice; and yet, they, like you, often feel rather embarrassed themselves and don t know how to go about it.
