Not illustrated. 1902 Excerpt: .it has been decided to make the following modifications in the present form of the papers. My Lords deem it highly desirable that every encouragement should be given to the teaching of continuous prose composition in Greek. In future, therefore, the Higher Grade paper will contain an easy passage of English for translation into Greek. This passage will, in the meantime, be an alternative to the shorter sentences hitherto set. Again, the testimony of experience is in favour of a return to the earlier plan under which the Honours papers in Latin and Greek were altogether distinct from those of the Higher Grade. It has been found that the system presently in use unavoidably entails, a certain amount of repetition, and renders it exceedingly difficult to keep the length of the second paper within moderate limits. In the belief that the change will prove n distinct...
