Unveiling Daniel on the Metaphoric Chessboard gives the most thorough and convincing interpreted understanding of the historical and prophetic features regarding the book of Daniel of the Old Testament. This is an in-depth study, a book specially designed for adult Bible studies and classroom setting. The purpose of this study is to enable you to build your own chessboard as each scene is unveiled before you, giving you a clear vision. You will gain wisdom, knowledge and understanding through your study. You will learn as Daniel learned how to stay true to God and be faithful. As the Grand Chessboard is unveiled we come to realize there would be a demanding verdict in every situation on the chessboard. Daniel and his companions displayed heroism, courage, integrity, and the ability to remain loyal to the Lord God, whom they served. Their character was unprecedented inasmuch that they could never be misled or mistaken as one of the other Chaldean wise men such as the soothsayers or magicians. An exemplified life has been modeled for all Christian and people of faith. Daniel's prophecies concern the Jews, the Gentile kingdoms, and empires that contrast with the world's system. Furthermore, we also observe the central regions of the chessboard, cultural disagreement of Palestine, the antichrist, and the Messiah. You will explore the book of Daniel as it is portrayed on a Grand Chessboard in four dimensions. The book of Daniel gives an outline of the Gentile nations (or empires) which were successively in having sway over that part of the earth covered by the old Roman Empire. Daniel spoke of these kings and kingdoms in their relationship too and disregard for Israel.
