Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Cannon Chronicles is a collection of six short stories revolving around the old Cannon cinema. My first trip to the Cannon follows the innocence of a six year old child on their first trip to the movies in 1987. As they arrive the child describes in detail all of what they can see, hear and smell. Raw of the Wolds tells the story of how a government initiative (Hs1) and a new cinema multiplex threatens the closure of the Cannon in 2001. Reflection on the the hidden cellar tells the story of William who in 2005 stumbles upon a hidden staircase only visible in the reflection of a mirror, but where does it lead and can he get back? Reflection of the Son follows on from the last story and sees Isaac go looking for his missing father only to discover a horrifying truth. In The doorway Man we see an electrician working on the Cannon in 2017 when what appears to be a former member of staff disturb him, who or what is he and why is he so angry? Can a discovery unearthed outside the building under the street give them the answer? Etched in time takes place in the year 2018, just as the Cannon is about to reopen its doors. A loner called Ray Ray Loftus; a former Professor at the local university who now works a technical crew for the Cannon, discovers a way to complete his former research. The research that had him fired in the first place. After several years he has now left the confines of his home and has made new friends, dare he risk...
