Excerpt: . . . Organization of Presentation Study Background and Findings BV Critical Paths - Terrain Data - Synthetic Environment and Information Visualization - Course of Action ( COA ) Development and Analysis - Management Summary Battlefield Visualization The brief begins with a summary of the studys background which includes the terms of reference, participants and information sources. The introduction also includes findings based on reviews of Army efforts with BV and assessments of those efforts. Terrain Data; Synthetic Environment and Information Visualization; and Course of Action ( COA ) Development and Analysis are three technology areas identified as criti-cal paths for BV. As critical paths, the areas require substantial developments in order to achieve Army goals for BV as stated or implied in the BV Concept pamphlet and draft BV Master Plan. Management actions supporting the technology critical paths are recog-nized and addressed as a fourth critical path. The summary section outlines an umbrella program that addresses recommen-dations for each of the critical paths. The summary also relates how the ASB recommen-dations support Army BV goals. 1-3 This item ships from La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
