Lion of Judah, Roar in ME (Hardback)

By Nandilyn Williams

Strang Communications Company, United States, 2007. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. We have been at war with a tenacious adversary since the beginning of time. In her new book, Lion of Judah, Roar in Me, Nandilyn Williams equips readers with a roar that will send the opponent running scared. When a lion roars terror invades the jungle and everything or everyone who hears its sound becomes petrified, Williams writes. She points out each person needs the strength, courage, confidence and appetite found in the lion that rules the jungle. In the first four chapters, she provides plenty of scriptures and a prayer at the end to help strengthen and prepare each reader. Williams encourages, Our responsibility as believers is to declare the word of God even when we do not feel it. We have no choice but to roar the word of God through sleepless nights, stressful work hours, painful moments with backbiting church members, cheating spouses, rebellious children, and all the other mad issues of life. Victory is for every believer who dares to declare the word of God and continue the declarations indefinitely, even after the promise is manifested. In the final three chapters,...
