Createspace. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 400 pages. Welcome to the Nightlife of the Palmetto City. With an Arch-Demon masking itself as a serial killer, a NCSI agent hounding a Navy SEAL for crimes he didnt commit, a clan of lycanthropes living secretly among the masses, and overseeing it all a congregation of pious vampires believing that they have Divine Right over the city, the nights were wild enough. Add in one young woman with special abilities and in possession of a holy relic that threatens the existence of all vampires, and the stage is set for a dangerous mix of action and steamy sex over the course of hot, humid nights in this Holy City. Jamie Grace wants nothing more than to lead a normal life, but her ability to see a persons soul through an aura that radiates through every living person makes this wish impossible. Soon after arriving in her new home of Charleston, South Carolina, she encounters what appear to be humans that have no aura. Jamie soon learns that the mysterious creatures are vicars of the Sanctum Damnatus and unfortunately they are as troubled about her existence as she is with theirs. Complications ensue when the vampire that has been sent to kill Jamie falls in love with her. With her would-be assassin turned protector, Jamie finds herself on the run from both the Damnatus and an Arch-Demon from Hell. Tangled with Christian dogma and biblical lore and set in this historic coastal Southern city, Jamie must find out whom she can trust and begin the journey of learning what she truly is in this first novel of the Holy Damned Saga. (Editors Note: This novel is attended for an adult audience because of scenes of violence, sexual intercourse, murder, rape...
