For many of us, life feels more chaotic than intentional, more frustrating than fulfilling, more exhausting than life-giving, or a crazy quilt of all of the above. We're harried and hurried and hungry for more. Jesus sees our soul-weariness and invites us to a different way of life—a way to thrive. In Thrive, Meyer leads us along ancient paths to discover rhythms, practices, and relationships which help us thrive today. With wisdom from the monastic Rule of St. Benedict lighting your way, in each chapter you'll consider your own way of life: your values and priorities, gifts and abilities, dreams and longings, your relationship with Christ and one another. Thrive guides you in writing a simple rule of life, a gentle guideline expressing your desires and intentions as Christ's followers. A rule of life is not about keeping rules, but keeping relationship—a life-giving relationship with Jesus Christ. Thrive will help you answer the question, what kind of life does Christ invite me to live? Endorsements Many believers today long for a return to the faith practices of our spiritual ancestors. Sandra Glahn, seminary professor and author of the Coffee Cup Bible Study series In our fast-paced society that is increasingly hostile to Christianity, how can the believer consistently notice and thrive in Christ's presence? In Thrive, Markene Meyer beautifully describes ancient, timeless spiritual disciplines and walks the believer...
