

How to Nail a Chick Like Me on the Internet: How to Avoid Online Dating Disasters from a Woman's Perspective (Paperback)

By Tish Kay Bazil

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .After experiencing a painful divorce, over-forty and newly single mother of four author Tish Kay Bazil had no clue about the dating world. Eventually she summoned the courage and dove back into the dating pool. But when she took the plunge and went online, she had no idea what to expect. In How to Nail a Chick Like Me on the Internet, Tish chronicles her encounters with a cast of wild and wonderful characters looking for love across the electronic frontier. With a great sense of humor, she shares her story, revealing all the laughter, pain, fear, and vulnerability of feeling broken after her divorce. The good news? Eventually, she went on to not only regain her confidence but to actually enjoy the journey. This book speaks to all women and men looking on the Internet for companionship. There's much to learn from her mistakes-and even more to gain from her insights into how to present yourself and develop a better awareness of how others perceive you, both online and in person. The dating stories Tish shares are all...
