CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 54 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.1in. A 50 year exploration on the meaning of love, life, spirituality and religion has culminated in this visionary book of reflective meditations and poems. In To The Hard Roof of The Universe, Nafis Khans eloquent wisdom and evocative poetry, speaks to the soul of those seeking to explore why we exist, how we deal with love, pain, joy and grief, in essence the very expression and miracle of life. The poetry and sentiments expressed, are open to multiple levels of interpretation, which both awaken and uplift the spirit, whilst at the same time defying conventional thinking. Khan has been able to seamlessly merge the beliefs, faiths and spirituality of Eastern and Western thought, and in so doing, create reflections on the mysteries of life that both inspire and stimulate. This book of poetry and meditation, invites a questioning, discerning public to slow down from the frantic pace of daily life, and delve into a world where love and being is celebrated in poems that the reader can readily identify with. Manifestations of faith and devotion, indeed, questions about our very reason for existence, are explored in poetry that uplifts, challenges and dares the intrepid spirit to conquer everyday fear and doubt. The meditations, spiritual reflections and love poems in this book, are inter-woven with photographs that remind one of a world of solitude and peace, a world undefiled by the hand of man. They invite you to not hurry, but instead stop and contemplate the wisdom and love found in the simple, brilliant poetry that speaks to the body and soul. It is a book that explores passion, love and the conflicts of different faiths as seen...
