Excerpt: .in my last report, that it would be necessary to break up the class of students, who were reading for the First Engineering examination of the Punjab University College, after passing the Entrance examination of that Institution, as it was found that success in the former examination did not lead to employment. This has contributed to reduce the attendance, which has been further affected by the severe sickness that has prevailed. Twenty boys passed the Entrance examination of the Punjab University College in the Vernacular, and 26 the Munshi examination: 2 of the latter at the head of the list. The boys of the present 8th class are reading for the Munshi- Alim examination, in addition to the Entrance examination, and those of the 7th for the Munshi examination; but I should be disposed to think they are attempting too much.
