Ousskirts Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. THIS APOCALYPTIC CENTURY is a Must Read book. It focuses on the Crises We Humans are Facing! The Apocalypse we face is not one that will be thrust upon us from on high. We have done it to ourselves as we have used Earth's resources as if they were endless and have depended on Earth systems as if they were forever self-repairing. Changes are coming at us now as one aspect of our (so-called) civilization after another no longer functions in ways on which we depend. The world of the Industrial Revolution is becoming unglued and the new Communication Revolution seems chaotic. A cluster of inter-related crises are undermining civilization as we know it. These crises include the Earth's overpopulation, our unsustainable global food system, our overstressed fresh water supply system, global climate that is changing, our deeply flawed free market economic system, our never-ending and futile war system, and more. Christensen's THIS APOCALYPTIC CENTURY analyzes these crises and calls for each of us and leaders everywhere to change their beliefs and attitudes as necessary, to accept the reality of these crises, and to work with others to deal with the crises as best we can. A key question behind those efforts should always be: What kind of world do we want to leave for our children and grandchildren? After all, in just a few decades they will be the leaders of their generations! Surely we must want to leave for them a world in which we have done our best to solve the crises and open new avenues of opportunity! David E. Christensen (PhD) is a 92 year old who traveled widely during World War II, was...
